State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Trio-Tech International (the "Company") is unable to timely file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2018. The Company requires additional time to consider and evaluate the effect on its financial statements of recent changes in United States tax laws which impose a one-time repatriation tax on entities with foreign earnings and profits. While the Company has been diligently pursuing such evaluation, it could not complete such evaluation within the required time period without reasonable effort or expense due to the complexities of the new tax law. The Company expects that the Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2018 will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date thereof.

Persons who are to respond to the collection of information contained in this form are not required to respond unless the form displays a currently valid OMB control number.
